High Tech Solutions

Easy to Understand Technicians

Since 1995

sell I.T.

Technology Plus understands that quality service is only half of any solution. The infrastructure of your corporate or home office, in this ever changing environment with communications, graphically and verbally, is vital for your ability to be mobile, stationary and adaptable to change. Quality products are the key to a long lasting solution. Technology Plus has built strong relationships with proven manufacturers that allow us to provide quality solutions at affordable prices. Below are brief descriptions of the products we provide, install and service. Call us for more details.

networking: From corporate offices, home based businesses, virtual offices, mobile sales forces and nationwide office expansions, the need to connect people with information is essential. Why change the way you work due to technology when all you need are solutions on your terms. Technology Plus is your one source for all your technology needs.

computers: Computers are an integral part of your daily life which means, it's essential they perform well. We sell top quality brand names that will meet your needs. We can also custom build systems, from desktop computers to servers, to any specification not available from these suppliers.

secure data: Corporate networks and small business data along with disk drives and servers, can be at risk without proper data protection architecture. Protect your photos, music and other valuable data. Recovering lost data is another specialty of Technology Plus.

telephone systems: Being an authorized NEC Partner, along with other brand names, gives Technology Plus the opportunity to provide robust systems for small to medium sized companies and home offices. Our technicians can install, configure and support your phone system that will allow you to communicate anytime, anywhere with your customers efficiently.

digital imaging: Technology Plus is an authorized HP partner, which means we sell quality HP printers, scanners, fax machines, copiers, and cameras as well as provide you with a local presence for warranty and non-warranty repairs if needed.

wireless: Home, work or at play. Mobile office, TV, wireless internet, email and GPS navigation are just a few options for your cell phone. We, along with our providers, will give you a free consultation to help make the best decision that's right for your productivity and adaptability.
